The London Chronicle says: "We are losing most of our eccentric inn names, but in Germany they are adding to them. Berlin now boasts the Comfortable Chicken, Cold Frog, Stiff Dog, Thirsty Pelican, Dirty Parlor, Musical Cats, Boxers' Den and Lame Louise. Leipzig has the Old Straw Bag, Stadden and Open Bungalow, and the vicinity of many a cemetery in the fatherland is graced by a Last Tear."

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
FORT SHAFTER, May 23.—Under orders from department headquarters a board of officers to consist of Lieutenant-colonel B. W. Atkinson and Captains O. B. Rosenbaum, quartermaster, and Jesse M. Cullison, commissary, 2d Infantry, has been appointed to investigate and determine the articles to be carried in the four wagons of the baggage section of the field train of the 2d Infantry in order to secure conformity and to recommend such distribution of the wagons among minor organizations as will insure the most practical plan, both in distribution of wagons and method of loading. This procedure is made necessary by the requirements of the tables of organization, U. S. army, and by the decision of the department commander that the regimental field train shall conform to the requirements of the tables quoted. The board will further be guided by the restrictions of general orders No. 35, war department series of 1914.

The surveying force of the chief quartermaster's office has completed the work of running the lines for the location of the addition to the post of barracks for two battalions and the necessary quarters for officers that will be required to make of Shafter a permanent post to accommodate a full regiment of infantry. The necessary study of the completed maps will now take place in order to determine the sites for the buildings. It is probable that this study and the consequent decision thereunder will be made in the office of the chief quartermaster and the delay that would be incident to sending the plans to Washington thereby avoided. Should this more expeditious plan be adopted work of a preparatory nature could be commenced at an earlier date and immediately upon the allotment of the funds for the proposed improvements.

The 2d Infantry ball team has arranged two games for practice during the coming week. The first will be tomorrow at 2:30 with the department hospital team and will take place on the Fort Shafter diamond. The second is to be with the visiting Japanese nine from Keio university and will be played on Moiliili field at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Second Lieutenant W. A. Reed, 2d Infantry, has by orders dated May 21 been relieved from charge of the scouts and mounted orderlies of the regiment. Lieutenant Reed has also been transferred from the unassigned list of officers to company F to take effect on the same date as his relief from duty with the scouts.

The construction gang of the road department of the county has about completed the repairs on the stretch of country road that lies within the limits of the reservation and much contentment on the part of automobilists has been the result.

Upon the recommendation of the commanding officer, Band, 2d Infantry, the following appointment has been made in that organization as of date of May 31: To be corporal, Private Fred Bates, vice Graham, discharged.

MAUI NEWS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, Maui, May 22.—The community of Wailuku was greatly saddened last evening by the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weight. The babe was born on Monday morning, and up to last night there were hopes for its life, but at five yesterday it breathed its last. The funeral was held today by Rev. J. C. Villiers. The floral tributes were unusually beautiful. Lilies and violet wreaths were in abundance. The sympathy of the people goes out most sincerely to the bereaved parents and relatives.

Miss Beulah Drinkie, cousin of the Misses Crickard of Wailuku, will arrive on Maui in August to take up her work in September as kindergarten, succeeding Miss Sue Starkweather in that position.

H. Gooding Field has been a visitor for ten days, having been the guest of his brother, W. H. Field, manager and proprietor of the Maui hotel.

HILLO NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
HILLO, May 22.—The third circuit court concluded its April term Wednesday evening, adjourning sine die at 6 o'clock just after the jury had returned a verdict of acquittal in the murder case of Kaneda Yohel, a Japanese whose trial had been in progress for the last two weeks. The jury deliberated two hours and a half before reaching its decision.

No one save U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCann knows when the next trial of the Sylvester case will be held—and possibly he does not. In fact, it is not certain, Attorney McBride says, whether the couple is to be tried again. The hearing will not be called for some time; that much he was practically assured by the federal prosecutor.

Attorney Claudius H. McBride brought back the news that another session of the federal court probably will be held at Hilo two or three weeks hence. A large number of criminal cases of minor importance on this island remain to be disposed of, some of them being carried over from the last session held at Hilo about a year ago.

The new church of The Sacred Heart at Hakalau will be opened with dedication services next Sunday at 10 o'clock. The Hilo band will provide music, and lunches can be procured on the premises. The people of Hilo and all other districts are invited to attend.

Robbins Kinney had a narrow escape near the Honolulu bridge last Sunday morning when an automobile driven by Archie Kennedy collided with his motorcycle, jamming Kinney and his machine against a fence stretching above a deep gulch.

The members of the Hilo fire department will hold their first annual excursion, luau and dance June 11 at Kapoho. It is intended to make the event an annual celebration.
